Al and Sandra Steinberg are both alumni of Mizzou. With over eighty years of combined experience in the retail industry, the Steinbergs hold a unique perspective on the softgoods industry. Both executives for Dillard's, the couple started their careers with the May Company (now known as Macy's).

Sandra Steinberg, a TAM graduate, is Vice President and GMM of Dillard's Southeast Division, operating 67 stores in five states. Al Steinberg, who became the one of the youngest vice presidents in Macy's history at age 29, is now the Vice President and District Manager for 19 Dillard's stores on the Florida coast.
