

COSTA RICA

Social Justice, Human Rights and Narratives in Costa Rica

Location San José

Term Winter break 2019/20

Led by Monika Fischer, Digital Storytelling (fischerm@missouri.edu)

Course Pick one: DST_VS 4930, PEA_ST 4005/7980, TAM 4549/8001, WGST 4874/7874

Highlights

- + Understand how Costa Rica views social justice and the role of civil society.
- + Examine how narratives give voice and bear witness to a diversity of values, beliefs and experiences.
- + Explore the way that narrative and storytelling influence and determine policy.
- + Learn why Costa Rica has it's own story of an "alternative way."

Application deadline September 20

Learn more international.missouri.edu/costarica-socjus

International Center

University of Missouri